Craft show features 180 vendors, supports music program

All community members are invited to attend the 11th annual Sycamore Arts and Crafts Show at Sycamore High School, 7400 Cornell Road, on Nov. 20 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. to purchase unique art work and local crafts from more than 180 vendors and artists. Admission is free.

Items for sale include jewelry, clothing, floral arrangements, home décor, housewares, paintings, photographs and ceramics, all in time for the holidays.

The event also includes performances by Sycamore High School band students throughout the day. Food from Starbucks, Panera and Montgomery Inn will be available.

In addition, visitors can enter a raffle to win more than 150 craft prizes and one itouch grand prize. Raffle tickets can be purchased at the event and cost $1 per ticket, or $5 for six tickets.

Sponsored by the Sycamore Band and Orchestra Boosters, all proceeds benefit Sycamore Community Schools' instrumental music departments.
